STOP, SHOP, AND UNROLL

Finally! Condoms strange enough for even your twisted sex life.

CONSENT CONDOM

The wrapper records a woman's fingerprints as she tears tabs that document the day, month, and year of your unromantic encounter. It's designed to prevent fraudulent charges of sexual impropriety—and since no woman would agree to use the thing, it works like a charm.

INSPIRAL CONDOM

If a rubber got cancer, it'd look like this. The end of the inSpiral features a lopsided circle of extra latex that supposedly brings guys more pleasure. Just be sure to warn her first or she'll think you had a terrible circumcision accident as a baby.

TRI-COLOR CONDOMS

With four versions corresponding to the flag colors of 36 countries, these jimmy hats are long on patriotism. Whether you're an American tripod, a flea-dicked Brit, or just want to make your Thai hooker feel more at home, you're sure to find a condom to raise up your li'l flagpole.

KISS KONDOM

What better way to rock'n'roll all night than to sport a raincoat endorsed by old guys in makeup? Choose from three types: "Love Gun Protection," the vaguely homoerotic "Paul Studded," and the downright horrifying "Gene Flavored."
